

Jay S Miller

91

Ultraia St. Jacques 2011

“It is now a more serious wine than the initial vintages, a full grown-up rather than a kid. The medium-bodied palate shows dried roses, and is long and uncomplicated, a touch sweet. It is great value- if you can find it! Drink 2013-2019.”

Jay S Miller

91

Ultraia St. Jacques 2011

“It is now a more serious wine than the initial vintages, a full grown-up rather than a kid. The medium-bodied palate shows dried roses, and is long and uncomplicated, a touch sweet. It is great value- if you can find it! Drink 2013-2019.”

Jay S Miller

91

Ultraia St. Jacques 2011

“It is now a more serious wine than the initial vintages, a full grown-up rather than a kid. The medium-bodied palate shows dried roses, and is long and uncomplicated, a touch sweet. It is great value- if you can find it! Drink 2013-2019.”

Jay S Miller

91

Ultraia St. Jacques 2011

“It is now a more serious wine than the initial vintages, a full grown-up rather than a kid. The medium-bodied palate shows dried roses, and is long and uncomplicated, a touch sweet. It is great value- if you can find it! Drink 2013-2019.”

Jay S Miller

91

Ultraia St. Jacques 2011

“It is now a more serious wine than the initial vintages, a full grown-up rather than a kid. The medium-bodied palate shows dried roses, and is long and uncomplicated, a touch sweet. It is great value- if you can find it! Drink 2013-2019.”

Jay S Miller

91

Ultraia St. Jacques 2011

“It is now a more serious wine than the initial vintages, a full grown-up rather than a kid. The medium-bodied palate shows dried roses, and is long and uncomplicated, a touch sweet. It is great value- if you can find it! Drink 2013-2019.”

